

*Coming to Bishop Hellmuth
Heritage Conservation District!*

Historical House Signs

Architectural Conservancy Ontario – London Region is pleased to announce an initiative focussing on telling the stories of our built heritage.

We're piloting our project in Bishop Hellmuth because of the abundance of heritage properties in your community.

We'll do the research, order the sign, and deliver to you.

Find out who lived in your house when it was first built!

HISTORICAL HOUSE SIGN PROGRAM APPLICATION

I/we are applying to participate in ACO London’s Historical House Sign Programme sponsored by ACO-London.

Name: .....

Address: .....

Phone: ..... Email: .....

Address of property to receive an historical house sign [if different from address above]:

.....

If you happen to have your Lot information from your MPAC form, enter here: .....

I/we acknowledge that ACO-London will research the history of the property to determine the date of construction and the name and occupation of the first resident. ACO-London will take photos of the building exterior for research purposes, architectural features, and inclusion in the monograph.

I/we acknowledge that the sign shall record the date of construction, the name and the occupation of the first resident(s) and the ACO-London name and logo. All ACO-London signs will be of a standard size and material in order to maintain consistency in design, materials, and recorded information

I/we agree to install the sign in an appropriate and clearly visible location on the façade of the building; and that the maintenance of the sign will be my/our responsibility.

Participation in the Historical House Sign Program does not involve property heritage designation by the City of London. Note: results of house research will be shared with City of London heritage planner, plus kept on file at the London Room and ACO-London. At no time, will ACO-London share or sell applicants’ personal information.
